College years pass rapidly and this year seems to be no exception. It is our hope that it has been a successful year for you. You have made new acquaintances and friends many of which will last a lifetime. May the experiences that you have encountered add to the goals you desire to achieve.

I know that I speak for the entire administration, faculty, and staff in which for you the best as you meet the challenges of each day.

May this book serve as a reminder of your days at East Central.

Sincerely,

Charles V. Wright

LIBRARIANS

Burton Library is open sixty-five and one half hours a week to serve the reference and reading needs of East Central students and faculty. Housed in the new 15,488 square foot structure, the library can seat two hundred and fifty students at one time. There are nine private study rooms all equipped for the use of audio-visual materials, and a large conference room is available for group viewing of taped materials on television.

Over 26,000 volumes, more than 1,000 pieces of ausio-visual aids, and 125 current periodicals are available. Sixteen workers serve the average daily usage of one hundred and fifty-four students. The average book circulation is nineteen volumes per day. The academic faculty makes the primary use of the library for academic students through assignments to be done by the student outside of class. The vocational-technical faculty makes wide use of the library materials through a check out system through which the materials are used by the instructors with the students in class.

Interesting and timely exhibits, collections, and memorabelia are continuously on view in the glass cases in the library lobby. Colorful displays, informative bulletin boards, and the always available assistance of the librarians and student helpers help to make the library a very special place on campus.

'Mess ECJC' to be picked Tues, April 8

By DIANNE RUSSELL

On Tuesday, April 8, the Home Economics Club will sponsor a "Mess East Central" Beauty Pageant. This is an annual event, with each club or organization on campus sponsoring one or more males in a comical "take-off" of a beauty pageant.

The contestants will be judged in three categories: eveing gown, talent (a two minute presentation), and audience response. Each category counts as one third of the total score. Judges for this event are the winners of the Miss ECJC Scholarship Pageant, held in the latter part of March.

Three of the winners of last year's pageant are on campus this year: Beauties Ken ... Geddie Simm... Johr... ...

FEBRUARY 25 THROUGH MARCH 1

MISS EAST CENTRAL JUNIOR COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP PAGEANT

On March 28, 1980, in the Fine Arts Auditorium, thirteen ECJC girls competed in a franchised local Miss America Pageant. A $500 scholarship was awarded the winner, Miss Cheryl Gibbon. Cheryl represented East Central in the Miss Mississippi Pageant. The first Alternate, Cindy Fulton received a $100 scholarship. Cindy, along with Leisa Richardson, Retha Bryan and Carleen Jones is featured as a Beauty. Competition included a private interview, talent, swimsuit, and evening gown and onstage personality. Every contestant was a real winner and the audience enthusiastically agreed.

MAY 2, 1980

the long awaited day finally came.
So did the rains!
AGAIN
Once more, the scene of ceremonial ending and "real life" beginning was Huff Memorial Auditorium.

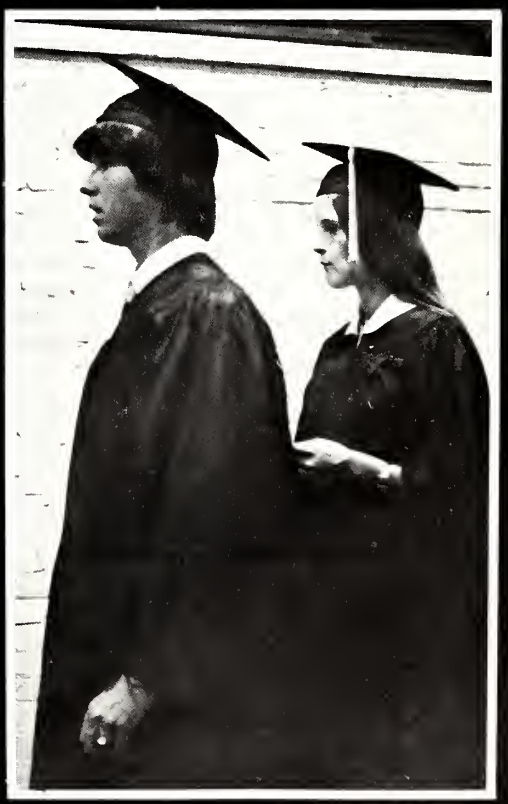
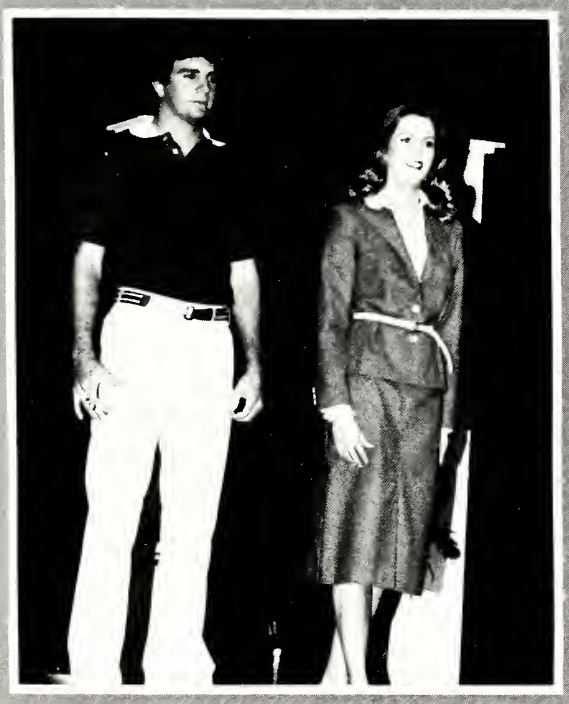
THREE PERFECT 4.0 AVERAGES!

EVELYN PIERCE WAS SALUTORIAN



THE FASHION SQUAD TREATED US TO A SPRING FASHION SHOW ONE APRIL NIGHT . . .



WITH THE HELP OF CUTE LITTLE "MINI-MODELS" AND HANDSOME ESCORTS.

And the Marriage and Family Class had a wedding each semester — complete with music, throwing rice, a real minister, receptions and

"decorated" cars! (and jitters, too)

May Day, a forty year tradition on campus is a part of our past, now, but we have high hopes that two new happenings will become TRADITIONS. We all took pleasure, pride, and "shivers" in our live, singing Christmas Tree presented by the ECJC choir at night on the front campus. It was beautiful and inspiring!

Black History Week was also highlighted on campus as a first. It was a memorable and enlightening experience in molding new pride from past achievements. We encourage the Wesley organization to continue sponsorship of this activity.

Capt. Tennimon

ROTC always brings a variety of actions to our campus. Helicopter rides, rappeling, field trips, and even hypnotism. Never a dull moment. Spring semester showed 112 students enrolled in ROTC making ours the largest enrollment among the state junior colleges. The ECJC Cadet Association was also organized to facilitate military and social activities of interest to ROTC students. Officers were elected: Sheila Whitten, President; Eddie Lawrence, Vice-president; Shannon Richardson, Secretary; Peggy Smith, treasurer; Evelyn Murrell, Sophomore representative and Vicki Hamrick, Freshman representative.

The ROTC also provided a special color guard unit for football games, parades, and other special occasions. ROTC was taught by Sgt. Major Royals, Capt. Dannie Tennimon and Sgt. Ewing Lawson.

Campus life is not all study —
not all work,
and not all play, either.
It's just life . . .

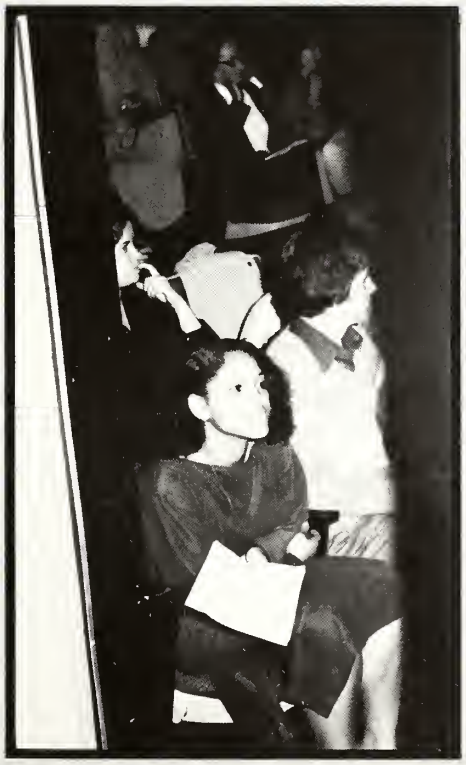
and — thank goodness — here at ECJC that means many things to many people. Especially, it means FRIENDS, the kind you enjoy sharing your fun with,

and remembering — even when you are miles apart and years away.



You have heard
Face the Front,
Face the Facts,
Face the Music,
and of course —
Face the Future!

1980 has been a good beginning for the new decade.
So long, yesterday,

The FACES of ECJC look forward to tomorrow!
